STATE OF ARIZONA)

I, Secretary of State Janice K. Brewer, certify that this Arizona State flag was flown over the Arizona State Capitol on July 5, 2007, in honor of:

Cub Scout Pack #432

For their continued service to Arizona and their community in the Scouting Program

The Arizona State flag was designed by Colonel Charles Harris, Adjutant General of Arizona (1912-1918 and 1923-1928). In designing the flag, the first consideration was historical value; the second, colors. The blue was taken from the blue of the Union flag. Since Arizona was the largest producer of copper in the nation and the star an emblem was considered to be easily distinguished, the copper star found its place on the blue field. As a western state, it was thought the effect of the rays of the setting sun would be appropriate to the Arizona flag, and in these rays the red and gold of the old Spanish colors of Coronado were used. The first flag was sewn by Nan D. Hayden.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona. Done at the Capitol this 5th day of July, 2007.
